Supreme Court Decisions.

The head notes of the Decisions of the Supreme Court, for the last term, are now ready, in pamphlet form, at this office. Price, one dollar.

School Books for Our Children.

The kind of education which our children receive is largely to determine the kind of men and women they are to become. In this matter no question is so important as the character of the text-books from which they are instructed. If these books are prejudiced and unfair; if the facts of history are misrepresented; if undue prominence is given to other parts of the country, then our children will grow up with false impressions and perverted ideas.

Whether intentionally so or not, the fact remains that Northern school-books are, almost without exception, unfair and prejudiced in their treatment of the South, its people and institutions. In some cases this is purposely so, while, at other times, it is only the natural result of the Northern education of the authors of the books; they have been so taught, and never having lived among our people do not know us. But in either case our children are wrongly taught when such books are used—a Northern spirit of antagonism and detraction pervades them generally. Such facts of history as the formation of our government, the Missouri Compromise, etc., are totally perverted, and even the character of the founders of our States is most abusively maligned. And when the history of the late war is attempted, "rebels" is the mildest term applied to us, almost every battle results in a northern victory, and all our purposes and designs receive the grossest misrepresentation. Even in some of the "Arithmetic examples," the most unlikely of places, the scholar is asked to calculate the number of "rebels" killed in such and such battles—the strength of the "rebel" armies, etc., etc. Can our children be permitted to make use of such text-books as these? Why, such misrepresentations and falsehoods are a crime against the nation; and their tendency is not towards peace and good will, but to produce strife and bloodshed. Can we permit our children to be taught that their fathers were "rebels" and "traitors?" The question answers itself.

We have been led to these remarks by an examination of many northern school books, and a comparison of them with the admirable "University Series" of text books, prepared by several of our most eminent and beloved Southern instructors, and published by the "University Publishing Company," of New York and Baltimore. Here are presented to us, at last, a series of books which are non-partisan and unsectional. No strife and ill-will can be found in their pages; no word of detraction of any part of our country or its people is permitted. The facts of history are impartially stated, the latest discoveries of science are incorporated, and all the most approved methods of instruction are employed.

When we add that the books are written by such men as Commodore M. F. Maury, whose fame has crossed every sea, and Professors Charles S. Venable, and George F. Holmes, and Schele DeVere, and Basil L. Gildersleeve, of the University of South Carolina, and others of equal eminence as instructors, who themselves graduated with the highest honors in the Universities of Germany, and have no superiors in their several departments of study—and that in these volumes Southern teachers will find the very best instruction, both in matter and manner, and Southern parents need have no fear of finding any surreptitious, or more open, abuse and villification, we believe we have said all that is necessary in favor of a series of books which appeals to the Southern people for support.

The Gold Bond Robbery.

Governor Bullock, in his personal organ yesterday, thinks we got heated over the gold bond robbery. That is not unnatural, whether it is a fact or not. It is enough to heat any honest man to see projects pushed for the plunder of the people, and we denounce this as a genuine scheme of plunder.

The sapient Governor thinks that the State gains largely by converting its past currency bonds into gold bonds, because the latter will sell for more. Unfortunately, the State don't get the difference, nor any compensation for it. This measure makes the State bestow upon the present owners of the bonds the gratuity of the advance of gold on greenbacks. It might well be looked into, whether bonds issued in the future to raise money for the State should not be in gold if they would bring nearer their value in market. But to issue gold bonds in place of currency bonds already issued, the bonds to be put in the hands of their present owners, and they to reap the benefit of the greater value of the gold bonds over currency bonds, when the State gets no benefit and incurs an extra indebtedness, is a simple swindle.

The Governor says:

"By issuing a bond, interest and principal payable in gold, we will be able to sell them in the market at par and above that rate. To offer a currency bond would not bring the State more than 87 to 90 cents on the dollar. Thus, by issuing a gold bond, the State will save over one hundred dollars on every thousand now, and will only pay for them when due twenty years hence."

This would do nicely if it were not unfortunately the case that, as the State's creditors get these new bonds and sell them, this one hundred dollars on every thousand goes to them instead of the State, and hence, instead of the State being saved this amount, it really pays it out unnecessarily, without equivalent and as a gift to its creditors.

It won't do, Governor. Those New York capitalists that own our currency bonds and want in their place gold bonds worth a tenth more, may see fine logic in your views; but the tax-payers of this State, who foot the bills, and pay the difference without equivalent, look through different spectacles, and will hold to a heavy responsibility those who vote away their money. And, futhermore, they will not hold him guiltless of a participation in the fruits of the robbery, who with his eyes open helps to perpetrate it. They will not be charitable enough to suppose that legislators or governors, or anybody else will knowingly do a wrong of this kind at the cost of the censure of the honest without—a consideration.

It may be a very nice thing to lift the mortgage from the State Road, particularly if anybody wants to sell or buy it, but as the debt is the people's at last, whether in the shape of mortgage or bonds, they prefer to pay currency mortgages to the gold bonds put in their stead, particularly when the creditors, and not the State, will get that 15 per cent. premium on the gold, and the State will have to pay gold interest instead of currency interest. It won't do, Governor.

You may want to put the State Road in a saleable condition, (hurry up another libel suit for this) but the people are satisfied with the currency mortgages binding the property.

As for there being no politics in it, the Governor is too anxious to make that out as a part of his case for the Democracy to accept it. There is politics in it—the same politics of aggression upon the rights and property of the people that has marked the whole course of this Radical—not Republican—faction under Governor Bullock's lead.

But let us look into these currency bonds that are to be swapped for gold bonds, and see how the people are affected. The currency mortgage bonds are $3,900,000 due in 1886—in sixteen years. Gold is quoted at 17 cents. This would add $663,000 to the principal of the debt. The yearly interest is $270,000. Gold interest would add $45,900 to that amount yearly, amounting, in sixteen years, to $734,400. This vast amount of $663,000 principal and $734,400 interest is what this bill proposes to give the State creditors for nothing.

Take the six per cent. currency bonds due in 1872, of which there are $730,250. The gold premiums will add $124,142 to the principal. The interest at six per cent. is $44,815 in currency. The interest at seven per cent. in gold makes $59,795, or an increase of $14,980 for the bond-holder for nothing.

And so we could go on through the whole list of bonds, showing an aggregate increase of the principal of our debt by this bill to nearly a million of dollars, and the increase in annual payment of interest to be a cool hundred thousand for nothing.

And when we remember that nearly all of these currency bonds are held by New York capitalists, who bought them at from 80 to 85 cents on the dollar, and who by this bill get bonds worth par, it will be seen how good a thing it is for them.

Now, if the bill stated that these gold bonds were to be sold by the State and their proceeds applied to redeeming the outstanding bonds, it might do; but to substitute gold bonds for the currency bonds is a most outrageous fraud on the people.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

SENATE.

Senate called to order by President Conley.

Prayer by Wesley Prettyman.

On motion of Mr. Higbee, the resolution of Mr. Wooten was considered as a substitute for the whole Savannah bill.

Mr. Brock resumed his political address.

Mr. Nunnally advocated the adoption of the substitute.

Mr. Dunning called the previous question.

Messrs. Burns, Wellborn and Holcombe opposed the call for the previous question.

The call for the previous question was sustained by yeas 17, nays 16.

The vote was taken upon Mr. Wooten's substitute with the following result:

Yeas—Messrs. Burns, Candler, Fain, Griffin (6th), Hicks, Hinton, Holcombe, Jordan, McArthur, Nesbitt, Nunnally, Richardson, Smith (7th), Smith (36th), Traywick, Wellborn, Wooten—17.

Nays—Bowers, Bradley, Brock, Bruton, Campbell, Colman, Corbitt, Crayton, Dickey, Dunning, Harris, Henderson, Henry, Higbee, Hungerford, Jones, Merrell, Sherman, Speer, Wallace, Welch—21.

The bill was then passed by the following vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Bowers, Bradley, Brock, Campbell, Colman, Corbitt, Crayton, Dickey, Dunning, Harris, Henderson, Henry, Higbee, Hungerford, Jones, Merrell, Richardson, Sherman, Speer, Wallace, Welch—21.

Nays—Messrs. Bruton, Burns, Candler, Fain, Griffin (6th, Hicks, Hinton, Holcombe, Jordan, McArthur, Nesbitt, Nunnally, Smith (7th), Smith (36th), Traywick, Wellborn, Wooten—17.

Mr. Burns gave notice that he would move a reconsideration to-morrow morning.

The rules were suspended and the bill to incorporate the Americus and Newnan Railroad Company was taken up and read the third time.

Mr. Speer moved to amend by limiting the capital stock to five millions instead of twenty millions, and to subject the road to the same rate of taxation as other roads.

Mr. Holcombe moved to amend by limiting the width of the right-of-way to 150 feet, and not 300 feet right-of-way.

Amendment adopted, and the bill passed.

The special order being the consideration of the educational bill was discharged.

Mr. Nunnally moved to suspend the rules in order to offer a resolution to authorize the Governor to draw his warrant in favor of the State Agricultural Convention for the annual appropriation for the years 1869 and 1870.

Mr. Speer opposed it—vehemently declaring that the State Agricultural Convention was a regular Ku-klux organization and he would never vote one dollar to it.

Mr. Speer was savage and fierce in his opposition.

Mr. Nunnally made a pointed and pungent speech in support of his resolution.

Aaron Alpeora Bradley opposed the suspension of the rules. The General Assembly should be just before it is generous.

Mr. Nunnally withdrew his motion to suspend the rules.

The time was extended in order to read bills.

Mr. Brock moved to suspend the rules to take up the bill to incorporate the South and North Railroad Company.

Mr. Harris moved to make all railroad bills the special order for to-morrow. Adopted.

Also, to establish a constable-in-chief for the State.

Mr. Nunnally—To add an additional ground for divorce (insanity made a ground.

Mr. McArthur—To amend charter of Savannah, Skidaway and Seaboard Railroad Company;

Mr. Wooten—To regulate the law relative to Dower in certain cases.

Mr. Colman—To incorporate the Brunswick and Hevana Railroad and Steamship Company.

House bill read first time:

To incorporate North Georgia and Tennessee Railroad Company.

House bills were then read the second time.

The following message and communication were received from Governor Bullock:

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
ATLANTA, GA., August 25, 1870.

To the General Assembly:

I transmit herewith a communication received from the Secretary of State announcing the discovery of two packages of bonds, amounting in the aggregate, as is alleged, to three hundred and fifty thousand dollars which were given in lieu of the educational fund appropriated by former State administrations to general uses. These packages have not yet been opened, and as they were not regularly turned over to the present Secretary of State by his predecessor in office, I would respectfully recommend to your honorable body that a committee be authorized to examine and ascertain the value of these bonds and give instruction as to what disposal shall be made of them.

RUFUS B. BULLOCK.

STATE OF GEORGIA,
DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
ATLANTA, August 25, 1869.

To his Excellency R. B. Bullock:

GOVERNOR: I have the honor to report that there have come into my possession to-day two packages purporting to be bonds of the State of Georgia: one package containing one hundred and fifty bonds of $1000 each—the other containing two hundred bonds of $1000, in all $350,000, and given in lieu of the educational fund appropriated by former State administrations to general uses.

It is proper to state that I was not aware of the existence of these bonds until within a few days past, and I have now to ask your Excellency, or through you the General Assembly, to take measures to ascertain the value of the bonds, and to direct me as to their disposal.

I shall permit the bonds to remain in the packages as they were found.

Very respectfully,
DAVID G. COTTING,
Secretary of State.

The Senate adjourned.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

THURSDAY, August 25, 1870.

House met at the usual hour, the Speaker pro tem. in the chair.

Prayer by Rev. Mr. Crumley.

The Journal of yesterday was read.

Mr. O'Neal, of Lowndes, gave notice that he would move for a reconsideration of so much of the proceedings of this House on yesterday as relates to "allowing Mr. Osgood to withdraw a bill," etc. Mr. O'Neal said he gave this notice at the request of Mr. Osgood.

The Speaker ruled that the bill having been withdrawn by consent of the House, that it passed beyond the control of the House, and that the gentleman's motion to reconsider could not be entertained.

From which ruling Mr. O'Neal appealed. He claimed that any action of this House which amounts to a finality, can be reconsidered; and he argued that this withdrawal was a finality as to this bill, and the ruling of the Speaker would deprive the gentleman from Chatham of the right to reinstate his bill on the calendar.

The appeal was put before the House, and the Speaker's ruling was sustained.

Mr. Carson introduced a resolution that the Clerk of the House be authorized to employ fifteen additional clerks, which resolution did not prevail.

Messrs. Phillips, Warren, of Quitman, Turnipseed, Harper, of Terrell, Shackleford, Fryer, Price, Paulk and Barnum offered a protest against the purchase of the Opera House, which protest was ordered spread upon the journal.

The school bill was resumed.

Sections 34, 35 and 36 were adopted.

On motion of Mr. Houston section 37 was amended in the 7th line, by adding the words, "all taxes, State or county" after the word execution.

On motion of Mr. Scott the section was further amended by adding the words "that nothing in this bill shall interfere with private schools or private school property," after which the sections as amended were adopted.

Sections 38, 39, 40, 41, 42 and 43 were adopted.

Mr. Tumlin moved to strike out from the 44th section the words "net earnings of the Western and Atlantic Railroad.

Mr. Anderson said that he is a friend to a just and equitable school system, but that to succeed, this enterprise should be started with moderation; that it is unnecessary to say whether or not the State Road pays or not; the simple fact that the earnings of the State Road are given, will array thousands of our people against the whole measure.

Mr. Caldwell moved to amend by inserting "one-half" before the words "net earnings," etc.

Mr. Rice said that we have two schools in each district; that the total expense for these schools will amount to only about $170,000 while there are already about $500,000 belonging to the school fund, and that he did not object to the motion to strike out.

Mr. Caldwell said that a certain amount of money donated to school purposes had been used to build the road now in question, and that he was in favor of taking half of the earnings of the road for educational purposes.

Mr. O'Neal, of Lowndes, said that those who oppose the giving of the earnings of the State Road to school purposes are not in favor of giving both races any more than they gave the whites before the war; and that he cannot see how any Representative, who accepts emancipation with its results, can refuse to double the original provisions for education.

Mr. Lee, of Newton, said that he does not believe that the original tax for educational purposes amounted to more than one-fourth of the amount now set apart, exclusive of the earnings of the State road.

Mr. Feider said that he is not, nor are his constituents, opposed to education of colored children, but that the people are afraid that the taxes for the support of schools will be oppressive and burdensome to them, and that he thinks that the other provisions made by law would support an economical system of education without taking the earnings of the State Road.

Mr. Bryant said that the provisions of this bill in respect to money are precisely what the law has already made.

Mr. Bryant called the previous question on the adoption of the original 44th section, which call was sustained.

On the main question to adopt the yeas and nays were called; yeas 49, nays 60.

Mr. Bethune said he believed it would take three millions a year to carry out a good school system.

Mr. Bethune called the previous question on Mr. Caldwell's amendment.

Mr. Phillips offered an amendment providing that the tax for school purposes, in addition to other provisions, shall not be more than one-fifth of the State Tax.

Mr. Bethune's call for the previous question was sustained.

On the main question to adopt Mr. Caldwell's amendment the yeas were 56 and nays 53.

Mr. Rawls moved to strike out all of section 44 after the word "fund" in the 7th line, which motion did not prevail, and the section, as previously amended, was adopted.

Mr. Scott moved to strike out section 45; on which motion the yeas and nays were called for with the following result: Yeas 59, nays 46.

Mr. Scott proposed a new section "adding the Chancellor of the State University, and the Presidents of Oxford, Oglethorpe, Mercer, Bowdon Colleges, and of the Colored University, as members of the State Board of Education." He said that he wanted to rid the board of a political complexion, and to add these gentlemen, who have devoted their lives to education.

Mr. Caldwell opposed the section on the ground that he wanted to see no man on the board who may have antagonistic feelings to the common school system.

Mr. Rice said that a section on this subject had already been adopted, and he considered the one proposed as superfluous; that but little is required of the State Board, and only such men as are needed have been proposed in the bill.

Mr. Bryant moved to lay Mr. Scott's amendment on the table, on which motion the yeas and nays were called for, with the following result: yeas 61, nays 47.

A message from the Senate was received, saying that the Senate had passed the House bill to incorporate the Newnan and Americus Railroad Company, with certain amendments thereto.

Mr. Bethune offered an additional section to the School bill, providing that each county board may organize a manual labor school, which section was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Darnell, the House decided to hold a session this afternoon, from 4 to 6 o'clock.

Leaves of absence were granted Messrs. Price, Stone, Turnipseed and Caldwell.

Several reports from standing committees were handed in.

On motion Hon. Garnett McMillan was invited to a seat on this floor.

The hour of adjournment having arrived the House was declared adjourned until 4 o'clock P. M.

ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 25.—A correspondent of the Courier D'Etats Unis says that a decided change has been made in the military situation within the last forty-eight hours. We look back upon ourselves after three months' disappointment and defeat, and to-morrow, perhaps, we shall take the offensive. Such is the opinion at the War Department and throughout official circles.

The correspondent adds:

"I am assured that McMahon's outposts extend to Mezieres and Moutine, covering the Ardennes Railroad, and line parallel with France.

The arrival of Bazaine's prisoners at Soisson proves that Bazaine's lines are in tact.

The work on the fortifications is almost finished.

Another battle occurred at Metz on Sunday, resulting in our favor.

Something decisive is being prepared for in that quarter.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

FRANCE.

PARIS, August 24.—Midnight.—It is reported that the Prussians are at Sezoune to-day—a town of 5,000 inhabitants, 25 miles southwest of Esseruay and 65 from Paris.

The Crown Prince is reported at Nancy.

Nothing from Metz or the armies of MacMahon or Bazaine.

General Winefly, recently operating against the Algerine rebels, commands Failly's corps.

The Ministerial Council is now composed of Ministers Rouher, Schneider, Persigny, Baroiche and Trochu.

Last night's journals ask what action will be taken by the French Government regarding Belgium's violation of neutrality?

The Committee of Defense has ordered the destruction of the crops and food in the departments of Nevarre and Seine.

The Empress is still at the Tuilleries and much dejected. It is said she becomes unpopular on account of her bigotry.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, August 25—noon.—McMahon's entire command left Rheims on Monday, hoping to be able to protect Paris.

The Prussian scouts are near Chalons and Troyes.

Advices from Montmedy to the 23d are silent regarding McMahon's and Bazaine's junction.

Rumors find no credit of Prussian detachments reported at Charmont and Brienne.

Preparations for the siege of Metz proceed with great activity.

The Paris papers are persuading themselves that Bazaine, realizing the situation, is using his last strategy.

Strasbourg is well defended and fully supplied. Correspondents concur that the French will only treat for peace beyond the Rhine.

Dense fogs cover the battle fields.

It is stated that the Crown Prince enters Chalons to-day as well as Rheims.

Frederick Charles moves on Paris direct.

In a sortie from Toul yesterday, 700 Prussians were killed and wounded.

PRUSSIA.

BERLIN, August 25.—The government has received an official dispatch, dated Bar le Duc last evening, to the effect that Chalons has been evacuated, and that the Prussian column is west of Chalons and moving rapidly.

FREDERICK CHARLES.

The Great Prussian Leader.

Prince Frederick Charles, a son of Prince Charles, the brother of King William, from whose comparison in a military memoir, written some years ago, of the resources, efficiency, organization and spirit of the Prussian and French armies, we gave an interesting extract yesterday, is decidedly the most talented and interesting member of the Royal House of Prussia. He is now forty-two years old, and is a cavalry officer of great distinction. He commenced his military career in 1848 with the Black Hussars, and wears to this day the hussar uniform by preference. He distinguished himself in the Schleswig war of 1864 by storming the fortifications of Duppel, and commanded an army corps in 1866 under the King.

A few stories told about him will sufficiently indicate the resolution, independence and originality of his character. When his cousin, the present Emperor of Russia, came to Berlin on a visit, after the Crimean war, he would not call on him because Russia had concluded a dishonorable peace.

During a visit at Paris, he rode out with the Emperor Napoleon, when his horse became restive and almost unmanageable. Napoleon advised him to send for another one, when the Prince answered him: "Sire, une fois engagé je ne cederai pas"—(once engaged I never give way)—the Emperor's own words to Prince Albert when the latter tried to dissuade him from the Crimean war. The Prince is not only a first-class and brilliant cavalry officer, he is also a military author, and created a particular sensation several years ago by a pamphlet in which he advocated the greatest individual development of the Prussian soldier, criticizing severely the former Prussian system as having a tendency to make the soldier a mere machine. His comparision of the French and Prussian armies, their style of fighting, etc., and his relentless criticisms, caused the Prussian government to suppress his pamphlet, but it was used at once in introducing many of the ideas, principles and improvements advocated by him.

Amongst all the royal Princes, he is the only one who has never been entangled in an illegitimate love affair with one or the other of the handsome ladies of the court, or opera singers, or ballet dancers, according to the fashion of the day amongst his equals. He is exceedingly popular with the entire army, of which he is now, the second in command, and destined to become probably Prussia's greatest general.

YOUNG AMERICA.—The World records this extraordinary "personal:"

"An elopement in high life is reported from Michigan, the imprudent fair one being three years old, and the unprincipled Lothario five. The absconding couple were overtaken by their respective nurses at a neighboring railway station in time to prevent the young lady's reputation being seriously compromised."

☞ The New York Democrat says: "During his Western trip it is said that the President 'sedulously avoided any public demonstration.' But the sheriff of St. Louis gave him a reception. He had an 'attachment' for the second Washington."

"BAD BLOOD."

"The Life is the Blood."

FROM it we derive our strength, beauty, and mental capabilities. It is the centre of our being, around which revolves all that makes existence happy. When this source is corrupted the painful effects are visible in many shapes, prominent among which is

SCROFULA.

This is a taint or infection of the human organism, and probably no one is wholly free from it. It exhibits itself in various shapes—as Ulcers and Sores, Decayed Bones, Diseased Scalp, Sore Eyes, Weak and Diseased Joints, St. Vitus' Dance, Foul Discharges from the Nostrils, Eruptions, Glandular Swellings, Throat Affections, Rheumatism, Heart Affections, Nervous Disorders, Barreness, Disorders of the Womb, Dropsy, Syphilitic Affeions, Liver Complaint, Salt Rheum, Dyspepsia, Neuralgia, Loss of Manhood and General Debility.

It has been the custom to treat these diseases with Mercury and other Mineral substances, which, though sometimes producing a cure, often prove injurious and entails misery in after life. The long known injurious properties of these so called alteratives and purifiers has led the philanthropical man of science to explore the arena of nature, the result of which has been the discovery of a vegetable product which possess the power of eradicating these Taints from the Blood.

LAGRANGE, GA., DEC. 3, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER, West Point, Ga. Gentlemen: Having witnessed almost daily, for the last fifteen years, the great efficacy of the preparation you are now putting up, known as "Abbett's Medicine," it affords me pleasure to state that I know of no combinations or preparation equal to it in the treatment of Liver Diseases of whatever character, and would cordially recommend it to all who are suffering from derangement of the Liver, and especially the Dyspeptic.

I am, very respectfully,
T. S. BRADFIELD, Druggist.

WEST POINT, GA., OCT. 15, 1869.

MESSRS. CRAWFORD & WALKER: Gentlemen—I can honestly and confidently recommend L. B. Abbett's Liver or Dyspeptic Medicine, as prepared by you, to the favorable notice of the suffering public. Having used this Medicine myself in my family for twenty years, I can highly recommend it for removing pain or flatulency from the stomach, caused by indigestion. It also has a happy effect in removing constipation of the bowels. I believe it to be the best universal remedy the world has yet discovered for the above named diseases. With my best wishes to you in introducing this valuable Medicine to the public, I remain,

Yours, truly,
A. K. KENDRICK.

LIPMANN'S

Great German Bitters,

Are a Medicinal Cordial, possessing powerful alterative, anti-bilious and invigorating properties, that can be taken by old or young, male or female, with beneficial results.

FOR FEMALES,

LIPPMAN'S BITTERS are invaluable. They build up the system, bring health and bloom to the cheek of the invalids. As a remedy for nervous wakefulness, to which females are especially subject, they are fast superseding all other stimulants.

LIPPMAN'S

Great German Bitters,

Are a Cordial for the aged, and a sure protection against malarious diseases. Persons living in damp and malarious climates will find these Bitters a valuable remedy; a small dose taken occassionally, will prevent many day's and, perhaps week's of sickness.

No license at all necessary to sell these Bitters.

SAVANNAH, GA., March 16, 1870.

MESSRS. JACOB LIPPMAN & BRO., Savannah, Ga.:

GENTS: I have before me your esteemed letter of the 14th instant, containing various documents relative to your "German Bitters." After a careful examination, I must confess that your Bitters is really what you represent it to be, an old German recipe of Dr. Mitcherlich, of Berlin, Prussia. It will, no doubt, be excellent for Dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, and it is a good preventive of Chills and Fevers. I find it to be the most delightful and pleasant stomachic.

I remain, yours truly,
[Signed] AUG. P. WETTER.

KIRKLAND MILLS, GA., March 22, 1870.

MESSRS. JACOB LIPPMAN & BRO., Druggists, Savannah, Ga.:

GENTLEMEN: I have introduced your Great German Bitters here, to my customers and friends, and I find a better sale for them than any I have ever kept before. Those who have tried them, approve of them very highly, and I do not hesitate in saying that they are far superior in value to any other Bitters now in use.

Yours, respectfully.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY
A GOOD MAN Leaveth an INHERITANCE
PROV. XIII. 22.

UNIVERSAL LIFE INS. CO.

—NEW YORK—

The Original Joint-Stock Life Ins. Co. of the United States.

The business of this Company is EXCLUSIVELY confined to the insurance of first class healthy lives.

THE DISTINCTIVE FEATURE of the Stock system of Life Insurance, as opposed to the Mutual, is a low rate of premium for a stated sum insured, which is IMMEDIATE, SECURED and CERTAIN; in lieu of a high rate of premium with a promised dividend, which is DISTANT, CONTINGENT and UNCERTAIN; this so-called dividend being merely a return of a portion of the excessive and unnecessary premium charged in the first instance

ILLUSTRATION.

Suppose that an individual aged thirty desires to devote $200 a year for the purpose of effecting an insurance on his life; this amount will immediately secure him in the UNIVERSAL, the sum of $11,751, payable on his decease. This sum, paid to a company charging the ordinary mutual rates, would secure him the sum of $8,474—difference, immediately secured, in favor of the UNIVERSAL, $3,277.

To illustrate the importance to the policy-holder of low premiums in more general terms, it may be stated that by a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium, the same amount of money will secure a policy thirty-three and one-third per cent. greater, and likewise that a reduction of twenty-five per cent. in the rate of premium is precisely equivalent to an annual cash dividend of thirty-three and one-third per cent. payable in advance, or to a dividend of forty-five per cent. payable at the end of five years.

By the Stock plan the full cash effect of the premium is immediately secured to the insured, the Company taking all the risk. By the Mutual plan the full value in insurance of the premium paid, is not secured to the policy-holder, who takes a portion of the risk himself.

THE PREMIUMS

charged by the Universal are as low as the actual experience of insured life in this country will justify, and on the ordinary Life and Ten-Year Non-forfeiture policies are nearly one-third lower than those charged by the majority of Mutual Companies.

Special attention is asked to our "Return Premium Plan," by which the amount of the policy is secured simply by the temporary deposit of the annual premiums, which are returned in full, together with the amount assured, to the holder of the policy when it shall become a claim upon the Company. Also to the

"REDUCTION OF PREMIUM PLAN,"

by which a reduction of one-third is made in the premium after the first annual payment, being, in fact, equivalent to a dividend of 33⅓ per cent. A clause is inserted in the policies issued by the "Universal," in which these results are distinctly specified and guaranteed.

The members of the committee are requested to meet in Atlanta on Thursday, September 1, for the election of their chairman.

A. H. COLQUITT, President.

☞ New York city has had 1,800 cases of sun-stroke this year.

Jay Cooke & Co. will establish a large American banking house in London with Hugh McCulloch as President.

☞ A. J. Applegate, Luietenant-Governor of Alabama, is dead. He was from Ohio, a Federal soldier during the war, and moved to Alabama after the surrender.

☞ Dr. Taber is the agent for that fine Savannah daily, the Republican. He is in Atlanta. As many of the Savannah business men may be expected to visit us at the Fair, our merchants would do well to open up a business communication with them.

The Sale of the State University.

We call attention to the communication in another column against the proposed sale of the State University domain. We particularly urge our legislative readers to peruse it. Without much information on the subject, we yet think the views of our correspondent to be pertinent and strongly grounded in good sense.

Personal.

We have had a call from Colonel Carey W. Styles, one of our predecessors, and now running the Albany News. The Colonel has lost nothing of the fire and earnestness that has made him so marked a member of the fraternity. His family are with him.

We also had a call from Mr. Wm. A. Reid, of the Macon Telegraph and Messenger, one of our valued exchanges.

The Air-Line Road.

The surveyors of the Air-line railroad were here this week, and intend commencing to locate the road permanently from this place to King's Mountain. Contracts will soon be let out from this end. A mortgage has been executed for three million six hundred thousand dollars by the President of the road, and thirty-six hundred dollars of revenue stamps cancelled. This looks like business.—The Carolina Spartan.

☞ The following statement appeared in our columns on the 24th:

We are also informed that the Georgia National Bank owes the State, on account of State deposits by the present State Treasurer, over one thousand dollars, which amount said bank has refused to pay.

We are informed by an officer of this bank that the officers of the bank claim that they are not justly indebted to the State anything on account of State deposits.

☞ The Hon John Pendleton Kennedy died last Thursday at Newport, R. I. He was a Baltimorean, served in the war of 1814, studied law with the famous Wm. Wirt, was a successful lawyer and author, a Congressman for several terms, Speaker of the House of Representatives, Presidential elector, and Fillmore's Secretary of the navy. His publications were "The Red Book," Swallow Barn," "Horse Shoe Robinson," "Rob of the Bowl," and "Life of William Wirt."

Phillips & Crew.

This enterprising firm, in their fine new store on Marietta street, keep their counters thoroughly supplied with the best periodical literature of the day. It is a treat to examine their stock.

We notice that they have all the September publications, including the ladies' fashion magazines—Godey's, Demorest's, Leslie's, Peterson's, etc. They have, also, Harpers', the Galaxy, with racy contributions in each number from Mark Twain, Lippincott, and that fine Southern magazine, the XIXth Century.

A New Institution.

Atlanta at last has an institution that she has long needed, and that we regard as a valuable addition to her wants. Dr. Innes has established a fine system of baths at the mineral springs. He gives not only ordinary, but mineral, and the very famous medicated vapor baths, that are so popular in our large cities, and that are so potent in treating many diseases that seem impossible to be reached by ordinary physic. They are better for rheumatism, nervous debility, etc., than almost any other treatment. This new enterprise is one that deserves patronage, and that we hope to see become a fixture in the city.

Motley.

Minister Motley is said to have left England on his return home. Grant seems to find it hard to get an English minister to suit him. Reverdy Johnson made too many fine after-dinner speeches. Motley seems to have followed Reverdy's fascinating example in this particular, and devoted himself assiduously to British grog and roast beef.

Reverdy did bring the Alabama claims to a finale, as far as he was able. He patched up a settlement, after very voluminous negotiations, that required relaxation in the shape of occasional junketings. But Motley has junketed and nothing more. But we can't see that it was his fault. Congress refused to ratify Reverdy's settlement. Johnny Bull has his dander up and refuses to make any more advances, and Motley can't force or cajole him into it. Grant won't let Motley advance.

So what has he had left for him to do save to put the lion into good humor with oysters on the half shell and enjoy himself?

It is true he might have devoted himself to a new history; but who can write history with so much jolly grog stirring about and on the beg for a drinker?

Trumbull would not have Motley's place. And now Frelinghuysen declines it. Verily, that Alabama Claims is a bugaboo of the first water. And well may men be afraid to tackle it in the light of American treatment of Cuba, and with English pertinacity to contend with.

Napoleon, Exit.

The Knoxville Whig and Register thus settles Napoleon's hash!

"The Napoleons have played out, and France is in the hands of the enemy. Exit, Louis Napoleon."

Poor Napoleon! It is a terrific pity that the Whig thus turned loose its battery on him. This act of prophetic demolition is the cruelest thing of the age. It seems that "Nap" has his hands pretty full with the Prussians, but he can't survive the Whig. It is more than mortal can endure. He must succumb. He dare not wabble a finger after he reads that appalling prognostication of the Whig about his exit.

The frequency with which Napoleon has played out and died at the hands of a large number of our prophetic and infallible American press is one of the curiosities of the day. The repeated newspaper annihilation of this remarkable individual is only to be surpassed by his extraordinary existence and retention of power in spite of said numerous squelchings. His ingratitude to these papers is vile, and deserves severe reprobation.

GEORGIA LEGISLATURE.

HOUSE.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

House met at the appointed hour.

On motion of Mr. Scott, the rules were suspended and the following bills were introduced by Mr. Scott and read the first time, to-wit:

A bill to authorize and empower the Ordinary of Floyd county to issue county bonds to the amount of $50,000 to build a bridge or bridges over the Etowah and Oostanaula rivers in said county.

To lease the Western and Atlantic Railroad.

Mr. Carson offered a resolution that the clerk be authorized to employ 12 assistants with pay from date, which resolution was adopted.

The School bill was resumed.

Mr. Hamilton offered an amendmont as section 46, providing that nothing therein contained should prevent the collection of accounts from a private school for the instruction of beneficiaries where there are no public schools, etc., which section was adopted.

Mr. Bethune proposed a section allowing parents or guardians who object to the prescribed text books to use any they may desire, which section was not adopted.

Mr. Bethune offered an additonal section, which prescribes that nothing herein contained shall interfere with private schools, which section was laid on the table because the same provision was already contained in the bill.

Mr. Darnell offered an additional section providing that sub-districts shall be laid off immediately after the election of county boards in November next, which proposed section was, on motion of Mr. Rice, laid on the table.

Mr. Phillips offered a section providing that no books of a sectarian or sectional character should be used, which section was adopted.

A message from the Governor was received.

The whole bill was read a third time. Upon its passage, the yeas and nays were called, with the following result: yeas 70, nays 29. So the bill was passed.

The Senate amendments to the bill to incorporate the Newnan and Americus Railroad were concurred in and the bill was passed.

On motion of Mr. Hall, of Glynn, all railroad bills asking State aid were made the special order for Monday next.

On motion, the House adjourned until 9 A. M. to-morrow.

"A Change Not Wanted." Reply: A Change is Wanted.

Editors Constitution: The bill offered in the Georgia Legislature by myself, and alluded to in your issue of this morning, under the caption, "A Change Not Wanted," is desired, I believe, by a majority of the legal voters of the city of Atlanta.

If it is a fact, as you say, that some of our citizens do not understand the nature of the change sought in the bill above alluded to, I make it my first pleasure to state that the change sought to be made is based on the principle of sound policy enjoyed by the State of Georgia, and the respective counties therein, or the citizens thereof.

When a Governor and Representatives are to be elected in the State, any legal voter in the State can vote for Governor in any county he may be in at the time. So my bill proposes to allow any legal voter of the city of Atlanta to vote for Mayor, let him reside wherever he may in the city. No citizen of any county can vote for a Representative in the Georgia Legislature out of his county; so the bill under consideration seeks to make it lawful for voters in the city to vote for Councilmen in no other ward than the one in which he resides at the time of such an election, placing the manner of electing the Mayor and Council of the city of Atlanta on the same legitimate principles that the electing of Governor and county representatives is properly based.

I hold that the principles are correct and sound relative to State elections, and that they are sound and desirable in city elections. I, therefore, advocate the change proposed, on the ground that I believe the principle a sound one, and just to the people as a whole.

I am, respectfully,
H. C. HOLCOMBE,
Rep Fulton county.

Atlanta, Ga., Aug. 25, 1870.

The State University and the Proposed Sale of its Domain.

Editors Constitution: Your comments upon the grievous mistake made by the Trustees of Oglethorpe University, in the purchase of the Lyon House for their institution, have suggested to me a short communication upon the subject of a similar error of judgment, which the State University Trustees are upon the point of committing. As is well known, the endowment of the college originally consisted of a donation of public lands, which were sold from time to time, and notes taken from the purchasers. These notes were afterwards assumed by the State, which gave the college for them one hundred shares of stock in the State bank, guaranteeing upon said shares an annual dividend of $8,000. This, owing to the failure of the bank, has since become an annuity payable out of the State Treasury. In the meanwhile, previous to the sale of the lands, there being among them all no location suitable for the college, Governor Milledge made a munificent donation of a vast tract of land, upon which now is built the town of Athens, for the express purpose of affording a favorable position for the erection of the University buildings. In the deed donating this magnificent present, thirty-eight acres were reserved and made inalienable, for the uses of the various edifices necessary, for the college purposes, for professors' houses, a campus, etc. The remainder of the tract, after the reservation of this part of the donation, was sold at long intervals and bought up by citizens who moved to the neighborhood, in order to educate their sons. In this manner the flourishing little town of Athens grew to its present proportions. The ground known as the "University domain," is occupied by various college buildings, consisting of a large library, a chapel, two dormitories, society halls, etc., in front, bordering upon the main street, and a presidential mansion with five professors' houses in the rear. The former part contains, say eight acres; the latter part thirty acres.

IT IS PROPOSED TO SELL THIS 30 ACRES.

As Governor Milledge's deed reserves the whole of the unsold lands in Athens for the college campus, an act of the Legislature is needed to enable the trustees to sell any more. This act has not yet been passed, although a motion with this object in view has, I observe, been introduced by Mr. Scott, of Floyd. It is most earnestly to be desired, first, that the Legislature should not pass the act, and, second, that if they do, the trustees should not sell the land. I urge the first proposition, not from any lack of confidence in the board, but simply because I regard Governor Milledge's grant to carry with it the preservation, intact, of the "University domain," and the Legislature will not, in my opinion, keep good faith with him by even so much as rendering possible the alienation of his high gift.

But, leaving out of view the propriety of the act as regards the terms of the donation, I propose to show the evil consequences of the sale, "per se." It is but simple justice to the trustees to state the cause inducing them to make this application to the Legislature. This cause may be summed up in three words: i. e., "want of money," and this—to the eternal shame of the State be it said—has always been the mill-stone around the neck of the State University. The college faculty is a large and expensive one, the appliances for putting into effect the recent changes in the curriculum are sadly insufficient, the lecture-rooms are inadequate to the demands of the officers, and the trustees "want money" to meet this emergency. This want they propose to satisfy by selling off 30 out of the 38 acres of the Milledge reservation. The following objections occur to me, viz:

I. The same consideration which the Atlanta people bring to bear against the Lyon property lies in this instance. There is no room for the enlargement of the establishment. The present front campus would be totally inconsistent with the dignity of a great institution. Any addition to the present buildings would require the re-purchase of ground upon which to place them, and the ground would have to be bought back at triple and quadruple the prices for which it was sold. And, moreover, in reply to the answer that there is no likelihood of the ground being needed, I have to rejoin that there is the greatest possible probability of such a necessity. The single matter of a gymnasium, where the contracted chests and attenuated limbs of the students might be expanded and strengthened, would require a large portion of this very ground which the board desire to sell. And as no channel of modern education is more neglected than this, so none is more likely to receive attention. All of the great educational institutions of the North and on the continent of Europe are awakening to the vital importance of "sana mens in sano corpore"—of sound minds in sound bodies.

II. The proposed sale deprives the president and professors of houses. The former, in the charter of the University, is entitled to a salary and residence upon college ground, free of rent. It is true, some individual presiding officer might find it perfectly convenient to relinquish the present very excellent house, but his successor would certainly expect to be provided with a mansion commensurate with the dignity of his position, and all of the money resulting from this sale would hardly suffice to replace the property. Again, the professors, it is true, pay rent for their houses, but at much lower rates than could possibly be had by going out into town and paying the rents there prevalent. Their salaries are confessedly utterly insufficient for the comfortable support of their families, and yet, the sale of their houses and the consequent necessity of paying higher rents for town houses reduces their income to a still smaller amount.

III. No one expects that the sum realized by the sale of the ground will be a large one. Nobody desires to buy such property save the present tenants or college boarding-house keepers. Neither of these classes are usually abounding with funds; so that the lands would be sold, at intervals, for very small sums, payable, in all probability, by promissory notes. The quantity of money thus gained, dropping in, at the rate of a thousand dollars a year, perhaps, would certainly go a very small distance towards "expanding the University," such being the object held in view by the projectors of this scheme.

IV. As this property, at present, stands, it is an investment paying the trustees a heavy interest. The rents of the houses by no means afford a fair estimate of the amount; in order to get at this, account should be taken of how much these six men would have to pay for town houses. This would surely be as much as $2,000, so that the lands would be required to bring very nearly $30,000 in order to yield their present interest. The man who supposes that this property would sell for $30,000, or for much more than one third of it, entertains a degree of sky-blue simplicity and sanguine confidence entirely worthy of the Rip Van Winkle community in which the land lies. But, in point of fact, this will not be a change of investment, but an expenditure of principal. The proposal does not imply the re-investment of this money in any shape which will yield a positive and stated income, but the expenditure of it in making sundry improvements of lecture-rooms, building a big brick wall or something of that sort, which (the theory is!) will so improve the attractions of the college as to increase its patronage to such an extent as to enable the board to "expand the University."

V. I am a graduate—as my pseudonym shows—of the college, and I expect none but an Alumnus to enter into my feeling of irrepressible, strong repugnance to this measure. I have a love for the good old university which extends to the trees and green grass on every foot of it. I speak for the twelve hundred graduates when I say that we cannot bear to see our old Alma Mater shorn of her leafy domain, and cut down to the proportions of a village school. Don't do this thing, gentlemen of the board. Don't authorize it, gentlemen of the Legislature—it grates upon our feelings—it rasps our sensibilities—it saddens us inexpressibly to see such an evidence of poverty and State neglect. Give the people one more chance to keep the college before you authorize or adopt a scheme which will shoot a keen pang of pain to the heart of every

ALUMNUS.

Reinforcements continue to go forward.

A number of Arab chiefs have gone.

The Poles are organizing for the French army.

Preparations for the reception of the wounded continue. Eugenie personally inspected the hospitals.

LOUISIANA.

NEW ORLEANS, August 25.—Louisa Murray, as principal, and Ellen Fallin, accessory, were sent before the Criminal Court, charged with kidnapping Digby's child. Bail five thousand dollars each.

NORTH CAROLINA.

RALEIGH, August 25.—The treasurer and paymaster have been enjoined from paying Holden's soldiers by Judge Mitchell.

Josiah Turner, editor of the Sentinel, Judge Kerr, S. P. Hill and others, prisoners recently released, were received this afternoon at the North Carolina depot by a large concourse of citizens. A procession of mounted men and carriages decorated with flowers marched through the principal streets amid the wildest plaudits, and ladies waved their handkerchiefs. The procession halted before the Court house, and speeches were made.

During the speech of Robbins three cheers were given by ex-Confederates for the American flag that he held in his hand.

On the arrival of the train a national salute was fired in honor of the prisoners, Judge Brooks and habeas corpus. A large number of colored persons participated in the ovation.

The best order prevailed throughout the day.

All the speakers counseled moderation and conciliation.

FROM THE SEAT OF WAR.

FRANCE.

PARIS, August 25.—The La Liberte firmly demands of the deputies to efface all individualities in our hour of need; we must not compromise the future of France; we must have but one grand object in view—the country. It also says, France, yesterday, gained a great victory. In one day many hundred million francs have been paid into the treasury. Prussia, for two months, sought to procure a less sum, vainly.

The National Guard and Garde Mobile are defending Toul very gallantly.

It is stated that the garrison, at Brussels, have been ordered immediately to the frontier.

The La Liberte, from private information, says that the siege of Paris is improbable now.

The Patrie repeats, formally, that the Prussians were defeated last Sunday.

An extract from the Journal Officiel says: "Our ports are free, and the fleet will soon strike boldly in the North and Baltic seas. Our commerce and industry are active—our credit good. There can be no comparison between our and the enemy's financies. Prussia looked for treachery here, and uneasily wonders at the promptitude of the nation in arming and organizing, and understands by this time that the more the struggle is protracted the better our situation. Our resources of men and money are inexhaustible."

Though invaded, France arms the entire nation.

Neutral powers remain friendly, but comprehend there connot now be a question of mediation.

The Siecle, commenting on the statement that the Imperial headquarters were at Rheims, says: "Who cares? Imperial headquarters can only be a superfluity—a superfictation—an embarrassment—a pretext for losing battles. The crisis is too great to talk of Imperial headquarters anywhere near those of the commander-in-chief."

ENGLAND.

LONDON, August 25.—Paris is utterly without news from the seat of war.

The entrenchments around Metz are completed.

It is believed that a deputation of the Corps Legislatif has gone to the Emperor with a demand for his abdication.

The Corps Legislatif is now permanent, and is guarded by troops. It announces a provisional government imminent.

Belgium's neutrality is not violated. Belgium was at first inclined to yield on the ground of humanity, but finally declined.

No sally from Metz has been made since noon yesterday.

In the absence of official news, it is believed that the Prussians will not attack Paris, but will turn their attention to the reduction of Metz and the destruction of Bazaine, leaving the Crown Prince to cut off McMahon's communications with Paris and check him from moving to Bazaine's relief. It is further believed that the Prussians are strong enough to disregard McMahon's reinforcements, composed, as they are, of raw recruits.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, August 25.—Nicolas Azacrate, special envoy to the Spanish Government, is here to consult with the Cuban leaders upon terms of peace throughout Cuba. It is not certain yet whether the consultation will be had here or Havana.

FRANCE.

PARIS, August 25, 9 A. M.—The Figaro has just issued an extra, containing the following news:

A person who arrived at Paris at eight o'clock to-night, coming from Epernay, reports that he heard in that city that the Prussians were defeated, to-day, between Verdun and Chalons. Groups of Prussian stragglers—cavalry and infantry—were continually coming into Chalons. The combat commenced at 3 o'clock in the morning. The news reached Chalons and Epernay at 3 P. M. There is nothing definite as to the numbers engaged. It is rumored that the entire army of Prince Charles was in the fight.

The order has been given to evacuate Epernay to-morrow.

The trains going East from Paris to Epernay, stopped at the Chateau Thiery, which is now the terminus of the line.

The Opinion Nationale says, that to all who think more of any other thing than of driving the Prussians from the soil of France, it recommends the perusal of the following passage from the published plans of attack:

Paris can never be ours, unless it is owing to political circumstances or moral reasons which will obligate her defenders to open to us the gates.

Political circumstances, says the Opinion, mean revolution, and moral reasons mean treachery.

The Council of Ministers was in session half of to-day.

The Committee of Defense have determined, on the approach of the enemy, to destroy the crops in the environs of Paris.

Great haste is urged on the farmers to store their produce before the enemy seizes it.

The Belgium Minister contradicts the statement that the Belgium Government permitted the passage of the Prussian wounded through Belgium.

The Journal Officiel says it seems all the news received at the Ministry says the Prussians push their reconoissance even into the town of Chalons.

The Northern Arrandisement of Vessy were occupied by the Prussians. Orders were given to oppose the Prussian march by every obstacle which the patriotism of the people can suggest.

RHEIMS, August 23.—It is supposed that McMahon and Bazaine have effected a junction, and will be supported by a quadrilattral composed of the fortresses of Montmedy, Verdun, Thionville, and Metz, and would await an attack. No important engagement is expected within two days.

GERMANY.

FRANKFORT, August 25.—The animals of the Zoological Garden have been removed—a part retained in the city and a part sent to Belgium.

More Prussian spies have been arrested taking plans of the works along the banks of the Seine; others have been arrested here; some have been detected with the troops of McMahon.

Remittances for the wounded have been received from Dublin. The Empress immediately acknowledged the contribution as follows:

This offering to the wounded French is received with gratitude to the generous sentiments which inspired this act of aid. Your wishes for the success of our arms, and the happiness of the imperial family have profoundly touched his majesty.

The Prussian troops closely surround Strasbourg, yet the government treasurer managed to escape with 12,000f.

THE next term of this Institution will begin Monday, September 12th. It receives as pupils in the school department, such youths, male and female, as are incurably blind to that degree which prevents education in the ordinary methods, between the ages of eight and twenty-one years, of sound mind, healthy condition, and of good moral character and habits, and takes as apprentices in its Department of Handicrafts, blind men not too old to learn a trade. Blind persons of Georgia, who are unable to pay for board and tuition, are taken without charge, being supported upon the State appropriations.

The Institution is furnished with all the usual facilities for instruction and training of the blind, and has accommodations ample, it is thought, for every one in the State, properly qualified for admission. Information in regard to blind youths is solicited, and the help of their friends towards securing their attendance at the Academy is invoked.

DECATUR is only six miles from Atlanta, yet it requires three or four days for a letter to reach here from the Ordinary's office there.

OVERBY Lodge of Good Templars meets to-night at 8 o'clock, in James' building. Candidates for membership are requested to be in attendance.

P. E. MCDANIEL & Co. received the second bale of new cotton yesterday. It was shipped by W. L. Lampkin, of Monroe county, and sold at 18 cents.

A FINE drawing, in water colors, of the new church edifice of Wesley Chapel, can be seen at Phillips & Crew's book-store. It is certainly a handsome structure.

Two young gentlemen, accompanied by "ladies fair," got lost on Stone Mountain yesterday. A suitable reward will be given for their recovery.

A ST. LOUIS firm advertises that it "wants a boy!" We know whole families in the same situation, and rather than be particular would be content with a "gal."

A PACKAGE of letters and papers addressed to a firm at the corner of Whitehall and Mitchell streets was found yesterday. The owners can get the package by calling at this office and paying for this notice.

A 15TH AMENDMENT at Sullivan's mill, while under a circular saw, received a flesh wound in the shoulder from the revolving saw. The 15th amendment is doing well. The teeth of the saw had to be re-set.

THE "Gordon Knights" ride at Oglethorpe Park this afternoon at 5 o'clock, for a silver cup, presented by Captain T. B. Archer. Bets are being made of two to one on the Knight of the Red Hand.

IT IS rumored that a bill, introduced in the House, by Parks, of Gwinnett, to change the lines between the counties of DeKalb and Gwinnett, was called up on Wednesday, and could not be found. Has there been any foul play about the bill?

THERE was quite a gathering of ladies at the Rink yesterday, and we are pleased to learn that arrangements were made for the coming tableaux. The ladies will have a meeting at the Rink on Saturday evening, at half-past 5 o'clock.

OUR energetic friend, Frank P. Rice, the opulent lumber merchant, has completed his palatial residence on Peachtree street, and will move in early next week. Of course, that "house-warming" will come off about that time. Major Cox will preside at the table.

GRAVE charges have been made, through the columns of THE CONSTITUTION, against the Clerk of the House of Representatives, by a member of that body. Will the House ignore the charges, or will they appoint a committee to investigate?

JUDGE JOHN D. POPE has associated with him, in the practice of law, our talented young friend, Julius L. Brown, who, we predict, will make his mark in this State. The firm is an excellent one, and business entrusted to their care will be faithfully and promptly attended to.

WE are indebted to Allen J. Veal, Esq., one of the solid men and most successful planters in Gwinnett county, for a sample of his fine watermelons. It was really luscious and refreshing. Mr. Veal raised one this year weighing thirty-six pounds. He never fails in making good melons.

WE saw a young "lovyer" exhibit, yesterday afternoon, upon the arrival of the Atlanta and La Grange passenger train, unmistakable emotions of pleasure upon meeting with his "flame," who had just arrived, and the last was seen of them they were taking a buggy ride together as happy as clams at high tide.

WE ARE informed by the General Ticket Agent of the Western and Atlantic Railroad, that the turn-out presented to Captain Blodgett was not altogether from the officers of the road, but that outside parties united in making the gift. We suggest that the best course to pursue is to give the names of the donors to the public.

WHILE on Peachtree street yesterday evening, we espied a bachelor friend kissing a little baby, giving it sugar, and indulging in the fondest appellations. In fact, he exhibited the strongest symtoms of a disease that can only be cured by calling on Judge Daniel Pittman. He only charges $1 75 for the formula or prescription, which any M. G. can put up.

THE Western and Atlantic Railroad is the property of the people of Georgia. They have a right to know what becomes of the earnings of the road. And when we couple the fact that its officials are receiving presents and exhibiting signs of thrift, with the fact that no money is being paid into the State Treasury from the road, it looks somewhat strange. Yea, "passing strange."

WE were misinformed as to the character of the accident at the Kennesaw Mills on Wednesday. From Judge B. R. Strong, the efficient book-keeper, we learn that the floor of the second story of the warehouse, where bran and flour were stored, gave way on Wednesday morning. The warehouse is attached to the Mill, but the accident does not interfere in the least with the operations of the Mill. The damage was slight, and will be repaired in a few days. No one was hurt. The Kennesaw is still turning out its superior brands of flour, and will, we trust, continue to do so for an age or two to come.

IT was rumored on the streets yesterday evening, that Governor Bullock had appointed Hon. O. A. Lochrane, Judge of the Atlanta Circuit. The appointment met with universal approval, and the people, without respect to party, congratulated themselves upon the event. Upon investigation we learned that Judge Lochrane, had, (though at the sacrifice of a heavy practice) at the request of prominent citizens, consented to serve, though not an aspirant for the position. We are further assured that Governor Bullock signified his willingness to make the appointment, if Judge Lochrane could be induced to accept. Judge Lochrane will make an able, impartial and dignified Judge, and will not soil the judicial ermine by dragging it into the cesspool of politics. The dockets are now crowded with cases, and we hope that Governor Bullock will rise above party malignancy and grant the request of the people.

ATLANTA MEDICAL COLLEGE EXERCISES.—A large and highly respectable assemblage attended the Annual Commencement Exercises of the Medical College of Atlanta, yesterday, at De Give's Opera House. On the stage we noticed the Faculty, Board of Trustees, Rev. Dr. Brantly and Rev. Mr. S. Landrum, also Mayor Ezzard.

In the building was stationed the colored band, who, for the occasion, appeared to excel themselves. After music by the band, there was a prayer by the Rev. Mr. Landrum, of Savannah.

The degree of Doctor in Medicine was conferred by Dr. Thompson on fifteen graduates who presented themselves, with the approval of the Faculty of the College, handing to each his diploma as he responded to his name. In a little while these young gentlemen, and we are informed that there were quite a number of talented ones in the class, were all invested with their passport to public recognition and confidence, and it is needless to say that they retired from the presence of the Faculty with more than an ordinary sense of their responsibility. The following is a list of graduates: Hiram Perdue, Albert Raiford, A H Clarke, J M Daniel, F S Miller, H T Dennis, J W [illegible], A D Bell, [illegible], J S May, T [illegible], [illegible], [illegible] Nolan, F G Carpenter.

The annual address was by the Rev. Dr. W. T. Brantly and his subject, their duties upon entering the profession of medicine.

Dr. Brantly was very happy in his chaste and beautiful address to the class. He stated that receiving a diploma would not make them physicians—that they had only received the seed, the fruit was to be ripened yet. That a simple knowledge of their profession would not secure success, but to it should be added an enthusiasm in their profession. That to qualify themselves, and be true to their profession, they must trample upon ease, and despise pleasure, when they conflicted with duty. That they should not give up to politics or parties, the time due to their patients; that every other pursuit must be subservient to their profession. He advised the class how to act in regard to their patients, when their skill was doubted, or their motives impugned; that they must cultivate an enthusiasm that could rise above all this. The Doctor recommended that they should cultivate their sympathetic feelings; that no profession was more called upon for sympathy; and, finally, that there must be a cordial recognition of Divine Providence. He stated that the practice of medicine was a noble art, and wherever it might lead them, it had every needed appliance with which to energize, develop, and ennoble them. Summoning to its service all the hidden powers of intelligence and sound judgment, calling into daily exercise the susceptibilities of a warm and generous heart, offering abundant scope for improvement and a boundless field for professional research, enlisting in its tasks the senses of sound and sight and touch, unfolding in this way the whole man and employing those united powers for the best subjects and for the best ends. If there was a round of human activity which could make its subjects be well developed and great, and ought to do it, it was the practice of medicine. If their powers were to expand at all, they must expand like growing vines on the trellis to which they have been made to cling. The profession had noble work to be achieved, noble attainments to be reached, and noble satisfactions with which to reward its pupils. But beneficent as was the calling, and rich in rewards for the worthy, it was at the same time a steep ladder, at whose feet lie all the idlers—whose summit is accessible only to those who had the energy and the will to climb.

The valedictory address by Mr. Hiram Perdue was very good; his advice to his class-mates excellent, while he was very happy in his farewell to the faculty.

We are informed that this is a class of intelligent young men, and that their zeal and studiousness in the past have inspired their teachers and friends with much hope touching their career in the future.

A benediction was pronounced by the Rev. Mr. Landrum, and with music from the band the exercises closed.

MARIETTA, August 24, 1870—Mr. Local: Messrs. Cook & Cheek presented rather a flowery appearance—Mr. Cook looked ready floured for not sticking during the baking process, and Mr. Cheek well powdered. This morning as those gentlemen sat quietly in their office in the Kennesaw Flouring Mills they were startled by a sudden snapping which caused them to look around, but ere they ascertained the cause they were buried in a shower of shorts. The floor of the second story of the warehouse adjoining the mill gave way, breaking a twenty-inch beam in two and drawing the iron brackets from the walls, thereby precipitating thousands of bushels of shorts, and thousands of bags of wheat, barrels of flour, bales of sacks, etc., to the lower floor, breaking that. Several men were at work on each floor. Those on the upper came sliding down like logs on a snow-bank, and those on the lower floor stood still and took the bath coolly. No one hurt or badly frightened; but all of them presented rather an amusing appearance, each blowing like a porpoise spouting water; all powdered latest style "Kennesaw." No loss, only the damage done the building, and the suspension of operations during the shoveling process, which will take some time.

Last night the Park was brilliantly illuminated by thousands of candles. A concert was given there. All the fair belles and beaux were on hand. The soft dulcet strains stole into our window as we lay on the bed courting the god of sleep who did not seem inclined to visit our pillow until the music ceased, which was in the small hours of the morning—one o'clock. This is a live town.

Yours in haste,
BONNIE V.

KOSKOO.—This medicine is rapidly gaining the confidence of the people, and the numerous testimonials of its virtues, given by practitioners of medicine, leaves no doubt that it is a safe and reliable remedy for impurity of the blood, liver disease, etc.

The last Medical Journal contains an article from Prof. R. S. Newton, M. D., President of the E. Medical College, city of New York, that speaks in high terms of its curative properties, and gives a special recommendation of Koskoo to the practitioners of medicine. This is, we believe, the first instance where such medicines have been officially endorsed by the Faculty of any of the medical colleges, and reflects great credit upon the skill of Dr. Lawrence, its compounder, and also puts "Koskoo" in the van of all other medicines of the present day. feb26-d&w6m

ECONOMICAL HOUSEKEEPING.—We have now before us a circular published by the Sea Moss Farine Co., which we advise every one who takes an interest in the food question to read. It describes, concisely, the origin and uses of the edible Sea Moss Farine, and presents an array of scientific and other testimony in its favor which can hardly fail to convince the most skeptical of its paramount claims as an economic, wholesome, digestible, eminently nutritous, and very pleasant addition to the national caste. This at least is the conclusion which many of the most eminent hotel keepers, artistic cooks, physicians, chemists, merchants, etc., of New York, have arrived, and they state their opinions on the subject over their own signatures, in the pamphlet to which we allude. aug23-d1w

MARIETTA, GA., August 9, 1870.

MESSRS. BRADFIELD & Co—Gentlemen: You will please ship us another supply of your invaluable Female Regulator, and forward bill per mail.

We are happy to state that this remedy gives better satisfaction than any article we sell. We have been selling it since 1868, and witnessed many remarkable cures by it. Among others there was a lady friend of ours who was sallow and sickly until she was twenty-six years old, at which age she married; her husband lived two years and died; she continued in bad health; in fact, she has never been what a woman ought to be. A few months after the death of her husband she saw your advertisement, and came to our store and bought a bottle of your Regulator from us, and took it according to directions. It has cured her sound and well, brought her regular monthly periods on, and to-day she is a hearty, blooming widow, with the use of but two bottles of your Regulator, costing her only three dollars, when she had tried several physicians and spent a great deal of money without any benefit.

Wishing you great success with your valuable remedies, we are respectfully, yours, etc. W. ROOT & SONS.

B. A. FAHNESTOCK'S VERMIFUGE.

WHY is it that so many children die under the age of five years? That a large proportion of children die before that age, has long been a subject of remark, and without a satisfactory cause ascertained, it is certain.

Also, it is known that worms exist in the human system from its earliest infancy; therefore parents, especially mothers, who are more constantly with their children, can but be too observing of the first symptoms of worms; for so surely as they exist, can they be safely and certainly removed from the most Delicate Infant, by the timely use of

B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge.

It is perfectly harmless, contains no Mercury, being a purely Vegetable Composition, and may be administered with the utmost safety to children of all ages.

Worm Confections, made more for the purpose of pleasing the palate than of overcoming the disease, have been manufactured all over the country, but their short lease of life is nearly exhausted, and B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge continues to grow in favor daily.

CAUTION.

Should occasion require you to purchase B. A. Fahnestock's Vermifuge, be particularly careful too see that the initials are B. A. This is the article that has been

Favorably Known Since 1829,

And purchasers must insist on having it, if they do not wish to have an invitation forced upon them.

WALTHAM

WATCHES!

THE extensive use of these Watches for the last fifteen years by Railway Conductors, Engineers and Expressmen, the most exacting of watch-wearers, has thoroughly demonstrated the strength, steadiness, durability and accuracy of the Waltham Watch. To satisfy that class in all these respects, is to decide the question as to the real value of these time-keepers.

More than 450,000 of these watches are now speaking for themselves in the pockets of the people—a proof and a guarantee of their superiority over others.

The superior organization and great extent of the Company's Works at Waltham, enable them to produce watches at a price which renders competition futile, and those who buy any other watch merely pay from 25 to 50 per cent. more for their watches than is necessary.

We are now selling Waltham Watches at less prices in greenbacks, than the gold prices before the war. There is no other watch for sale in any kind in the United States of which the same can be said.

These time-pieces combine every improvement that a long experience has proved of real practical use. Having had the refusal of nearly every invention in Watch-making originating in this country or in Europe, only those were finally adopted which severe testing by the most skillful artisans in our works, and long use on the part of the public, demonstrated to be essential to correct and enduring time-keeping.

Among the many improvements we would particularize:

The invention and use of a centre-pinion of peculiar construction, to prevent damage to the train by the breakage of main springs, is original with the American Watch Company, who, having had the refusal of all other contrivances, adopted Fogg's Patent pinion as being the best and faultless.

Hardened and tempered hair springs, now universally admitted by Watchmakers to be the best, are used in all grades of Waltham Watches.

All Waltham Watches have dust-proof caps protecting the movement from dust, and lessening the necessity of the frequent cleaning necessary in other watches.

Our new patent stem-winder, or keyless watch, is already a decided success, and a great improvement on any stem-winding watch in the American market, [illegible] To those living in portions of the United States where watchmakers do not abound, watches with the above mentioned improvements which tend to insure accuracy, cleanliness, durability and convenience, must prove invaluable.

Every watch guaranteed by the Company.

To prevent imposition, buyers should see that every watch bears some of the following trade marks:

American Watch Co.	Waltham, Mass.
Am'n Watch Co.	Waltham, Mass.
American Watch Co.	Waltham, Mass.
Crescent St.	Waltham, Mass.
Appleton, Tracy & Co.	Waltham, Mass.
P. S. Bartlett	Waltham, Mass.
Wm. Ellery	Waltham, Mass.
Home Watch Co.	Boston, Mass.

For sale at retail by all respectable dealers.

A descriptive circular giving much useful information sent to any address on application.

No watches retailed by the Company.

THE superiority of the above named article over any other Bitters is now established in every instance where a comparison has been made. The Proprietors most respectfully inform the public that the high reputation they have so justly acquired has been on their intrinsic merits alone. ARGYLE BITTERS are especially recommended, viz:

ON THE LOAD OF HAY.

Some one stole my heart away,
Riding on a load of hay;
I looked up, and he looked down,
Handsome, sunburnt Johnny Brown.
"Have a lift?" said he to me,
While his eyes danced merrily.
"Yes, I thank you, sir!" said I,
Nowise bashful in reply.

Side by side we rode way,
Sitting in the fragrant hay.
Johnny said, "It's pleasant weather,"
Then we blushed and laughed together.
Johnny whispered then; said he,
"Will you ride again with me?"
What I said I shall not tell,
But Johnny liked my answer well.

NANCY.

The Crown Prince over the blue Moselle
Has crossed in fact, not fancy;
For he had a nice little story to tell
To Nancy.

He put on his sword and his sharpest spurs,
And, taking up the advance, he
Made Marshal McMahon stop making love
With Nancy.

The Marshal retired to the fortress of Troul,
And did at a single glance see
The Crown Prince draw to his royal breast
Sweet Nancy.

It made him so mad to see such a sight—
So deeply enraged—that to dance he Began, because he'd for many years
Loved Nancy.

So he waxed his moustache till 'twas stiff as glue,
And, sharpening his lance, he
Straddled his horse and bade adieu
To Nancy.

And the Crown Prince looked on with a fierce grim smile,
And, as if in a pleasant trance, he
Poured a tale of love in the little ears
Of Nancy.

And sitting there till this very day
His fortunes to enhance, he
Offers his hand and he offers his heart
To Nancy.

KOSKOO!

THE GREAT REPUTATION

Which KOSKOO has attained in all parts of country

AS A GREAT AND GOOD MEDICINE!

And the Large Numbers of Testimonials

which are constantly being received from Physicians, and persons who have BEEN CURED by its use, is CONCLUSIVE PROOF of its REMARKABLE VALUE.

AS A BLOOD PURIFIER,

IT HAS NO EQUAL,

BEING POSITIVELY

The Most Powerful Vegetable Alterative Yet Discovered.

DISEASES OF THE BLOOD.

"The life of the flesh is in the Blood," is a Scriptural maxim that science proves to be true. The people talk of bad blood, as the cause of many diseases, and like many popular opinions, this of bad blood is founded in truth.

The symptoms of bad blood are usually quite plain—bad Digestion—causes imperfect nutrition, and consequently the circulation is feeble, the soft tissues loose their tone and elasticity, and the tongue becomes pale, broad, and frequently covered with a pasty, white coat. This condition soon shows itself in roughness of the skin, then in ERUPTIVE and ULCERATIVE diseases, and when long continued, results in serious lesions of the Brain, Liver, Lungs, or urinary apparatus. Much, very much, suffering is caused by impure blood. It is estimated by some that one-fifth of the human family are effected with scrofula in some form.

When the Blood is pure, you are not so liable to any disease. Many impurities of the Blood arise from impure diseases of large cities. Eradicate every impurity from the fountain of life, and good spirits, fair skin and vital strength will return to you.

KOSKOO,

AS A

Liver Invigorator!

STANDS UNRIVALLED

Being the only KNOWN Medicine

that EFFICIENTLY stimulates and CORRECTS the hepatic secretions and functional DERANGEMENTS of the LIVER, WITHOUT DEBILITATING the system. While it acts freely upon the Liver instead of copious purging, it gradually changes the discharges to a perfectly natural state.

SYMPTOMS OF LIVER COMPLAINT AND OF SOME OF THOSE DISEASES PRODUCED BY IT.

A sallow or yellow color of the skin, or yellowish-brown spots on the face and other parts of the body; dullness and drowsiness, sometimes, headache; bitter or bad taste in the mouth, internal heat; in many cases a dry, teasing cough; unsteady appetite; sometimes sour stomach, with a raising of the food; a bloated or full feeling about the stomach and sides; aggravating pains in the side, back, or breast, and about the shoulders; constipation of the bowels; piles, flatulence, coldness of the extremities, etc.

KOSKOO!

Is a remedy of Wonderful Efficacy in the cure of diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder. In these Affections it is as near a specific as any remedy can be. It does its work kindly, silently, and surely. The Relief which it affords is both certain and perceptible.

DISEASES OF THE KIDNEYS AND BLADDER.

Persons unacquainted with the structure and functions of the Kidneys can not estimate the importance of their healing action.

Regular and sufficient action of the Kidneys is as important, nay, even more so, than regularity of the bowels. The Kidneys remove from the Blood those effete matters which, if permitted to remain, would speedily destroy life. A total suspension of the urinary discharges will occasion death from thirty-six to forty-eight hours.

When the Urine is voided in small quantities at the time, or when there is a disposition to Urinate more frequently than natural, or when the Urine is high colored or scalding with weakness in the small of the back, it should not be trifled with or delayed, but Koskoo should be taken at once to remedy the difficulty, before a lesion of the organs takes place. Most of the diseases of the Bladder originate from those of the Kidneys, the Urine being imperfectly secreted in the Kidneys, prove irritating to the Bladder and Urinary passages. When we recollect that medicine never reaches the Kidneys through the general circulation of the Blood, we see how necessary it is to keep the Fountain of Life Pure.

KOSKOO!

Meets with GREAT SUCCESS in the CURE of

DISEASES OF THE NERVOUS SYSTEM,

Almost nine-tenths of our people suffer from nervous exhaustion, and are, therefore, liable to the concomitant evils of mental depression, confused ideas, softening of the brain, insanity, and complete breaking down of the general health. Thousands are suffering to-day with broken-down nervous systems, and, unfortunately, tobacco, alcohol, late hours, over-work (mental and physical), are causing diseases of the nervous system to increase at a fearful rate.

The symptoms to which diseases of the nervous system give rise, may be stated as follows:

A dull, heavy feeling in the head, sometimes more or less severe pain or headache; Periodical Headache, Dizziness, Noises or Ringing in the Head; Confusion of Ideas; Temporary Loss of Memory; Dejection of Spirits; Starting during Sleep; Bad Dreams; Hesitation in Answering Questions; Dullness of Hearing; Twitching of the Face and Arms, etc., which, if not promptly treated, lead to Paralysis, Delirium, Insanity, Impotency, Apoplexy, etc., etc.

KOSKOO

ROSADALIS!

THE Great American Health Restorer, purifies the blood and cures Scrofula Syphilis, Skin Diseases, Rheumatism, Diseases of Women, and all Chronic Affections of the Blood, Liver and Kidneys. Recommended by the Medical Faculty and many thousands of our best citizens.

Read the testimony of Physicians and patients who have used Rosadalis; send for our Rosadalis Guide to Health Book or Almanac for this year, which we publish for gratuitous distribution; it will give you much valuable information.

Dr. R. W. Carr, of Baltimore, says:

I take pleasure in recommending your Rosadalis as a very powerful alterative. I have seen it used in two cases with happy results—one in a case of secondary syphilis, in which the patient pronounced himself cured after having taken five bottles of your medicine. The other is a case of Scrofula of long standing, which is rapidly improving under its use, and the indications are that the patient will soon recover. I have carefully examined the formula by which your Rosadalis is made, and find it an excellent compound of alterative ingredients.

Dr. Sparks, of Nicholasville, Ky., says he has used Rosadalis in cases of Scrofula and Secondary Syphilis with satisfactory results—as a cleaner of the Blood I know no better remedy.

Samuel G. McFadden, Murfreesboro', Tenn., says:

I have used seven bottles of Rosadalis, and am entirely cured of Rheumatism; send me four bottles, as I wish it for my brother, who has scrofulous sore eyes.

Benjamin Bechtol, of Lima, Ohio, writes: I have suffered for twenty years with an inveterate eruption over my whole body; a short time since I purchased a bottle of Rosadalis and it effected a perfect cure.

Rosadalis is sold by all Druggists.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

☞ Phalon's Vitalia ☜ is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required, Sold by all Druggists.

TWELVE CONCLUSIVE ARGUMENTS

IN FAVOR OF LIFE ASSURANCE!

IT enables one, by the best method yet discovered, to provide for his own household.

It protects labor, and garners for the fireside at home the fruits of one's honest toil.

It brings relief to the sorrows of bereavement, and brightens the otherwise desolate pathway.

It gives the permanence of an estate or of a fortune to those depending on their daily labor.

It is the safest of all investments, as it thrives even upon the ruins of ordinary financial concerns.

It is a profitable use of funds, yielding better returns than most investments.

It is property not exposed to creditors or taxes, but protected by law for one's dependents.

It brings ready money in a moment, and at just that moment when it is most timely and welcome.

It affords all the conveniences of Savings Institutions, and much larger pecuniary returns.

It is useful for raising money by loan, where otherwise only personal security could be given.

It proffers its benefits to all classes, and men in all pursuits of life, being truly an investment for the million.

It benefits the assured—promoting industry and economy, and prolonging life by relieving it of anxiety.
